BEN HUR

THE GRANDEST SPECTACLE OF THE CENTURY IS TO BE STAGED IN WHEELING, W.VA.

Klaw & Erlanger's massively ornate spectacle, "Ben-Hur," is to be staged at the Court Theatre, Wheeling, W. Va., for the week beginning Monday evening, March 7. The engagement which will include special matinees on Wednesday and Saturday, will close Saturday evening, March 12.

The dramatization of General Lew Wallace's great novel has long been seen very little outside of New York. William Young, who made the dramatization, succeeded most admirably in the production of a drama, which not only retains the most absolute fidelity to General Wallace's great book, but which does not offend the most devout Christian. Professor Edgar Stillman Kelley has heightened the solemnity of "Ben-Hur" with music that is a positive de light to the ear. The stage settings provided by Klaw & Erlinger have never been equalled in this country. The pic-tures of "The Star of Bethlehem," "The City of Jernsalem, from the Gallery," "The Grove of Daphne," "The Fountain HONEST AND of Castalia," "The Chariot Race," "The Vale of Hinnon" and "The Mount of Olives," are remarkable exhibits of the best scenic art. To these are added some wonderful effects in lighting, as in the "Star of Betmehem," and in stage mechanics, as shown in the thrilling chariot race. The contrivances that go to make up the chariot race cost more than $15,000. Eight horses run in full view of the audience. The great scene which closes the play is the healing of the lepers on Mount Olives. Here hundreds of people are arranged ni picturesque groupings, the whole forming one of the most beautiful pictures ever put upon the stage. The personality of the Nazarene is not shown in the play, but in this scene the nearness of His presence is indicated with the most intense impressiveness by a shaft of the purest white light. The drumatization is carefully constructed so as to remove it from the domain of the so-called Passion plays, and while the Savior is only referred to, His tremendous dominating power is felt with thrilling effect.

The advance sale of seats for the "Ben Hur" engagement will open in Wheeling, Thursday, March 3, when orders for seats for any of the performances, if accompanied by a postal or express order and a sen-addressed stamped envelope for reply, will be filled in the order of their receipe. Address all communications to Edward B. Franzheim, Manager Court Theatre, Wheeling, West Virginia.

very elaborate, and is built for the profuction. The managers of the play were determined that nothing should mar the genuineness of the country atmosphere, adn no expense has been spared in the stage settings.

Many have asked, "Why is 'Quincy Adams Samyer' called the best New Englang play ever written?" The answer has invariably been, "Because it's different from any other play of its class." "But why is it different?" "Oh, everything is so natural, the people are just like the people you see in the country, the scenery is just as read as-anything," is the reply.

The husking-bee scene alone would win fame for the play. The real red ears, the real kisses, the real supper and the natural and humorous incidents attending the features have pleased immense unliences all over the country.

There is genuine comedy all through he play, and the few touches of pathos trike as true and convincing. The story s a simple and a sweet one, appealing to the heart. There is nothing in it an proaching a villain or an adventuress for it is not a melo-drama, it is only a wholesome, clearly cut picture of New England life, and as such it finds favor anywhere, in town or city. The play "leaves a good taste in the mouth" and that is, after all, what the people want.

CLEANLY

These Qualities and Its Humor the Chief Charms of "Quincy Adams Sawyer," Which Comes Here on March 10.

A prominent American dramatic critic concluded a recent play review with this sentence: "If a wholesome, honest, deanly play that alienates pathos and aughter with gatling gun rapidity is what theatre-goers want they will to see 'Quincy Adams Sawyer,' and it s quite evident they are going."

In these few words he summed up th facts and the reasons therefore the epitomize the success of the great rural play that for three years has been touring the country to record breaking ouses everywhere. The great masses of the people want their drama to be ome and cleanly; they leave the highly seasoned dramatic pablum to the so-called society epicures. They wont "no problems," no suggestive disquisitions upon topics that, outside of the heatre, are not discussed in public.

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" gives then in honest story of wholesome people told brightly and with great human terest. The pathos is of the decent sort and is never obtrusive. The fun, while fast and furious, is always clean. In addition the play is given the most complete and elaborate production possible o the modern stage. The company has been selected with special reference to the fitness of the players for the work they are to perform and the ensemble shows that completeness which is welomed by theatre-goers. When the play s seen here at the Traders Grand Opera House, on March 10, 1904, the proof of Sawyer," which will be seen here March all these statements will be so self-evi-

Discontent With Work.

That there is much discontent with vork among the so called middle classes in America is due in large part to the pampering of children, to the supplying of their natural and artificial "their day of toil will come soon enough." In general, work is not a curse, but a blessing-a positive means of grace. One can hardly begin too arly to impress upon children lessons of self help by tasks appropriate to their age and forces and to beget in them scorn of idleness and of depend-once on others. To do this is to make satisfactory. These two preparations that comes with the realization of power and thus to approximate Tennyson's goal of man. careful newspaper for particular people. them are concise and correct. Its de-partments are in charge of experts, and its authority in all matters pertaining to the events of the world at large and of the community it represents more particularly is recognized. It has no Sunday edition, and its position in that regard in Pittsburg is as unique as its thorough reliability in every way. Staunchly Republican in political policy it yet gives all the news of all parties. Its moral tone is high, and churchmen of every ereed find in its columns more news of their interests and work than in all its cotemporaries combined.

Sports are given the prominence they deserve and no more. The news concerning them is bright, timely and adequate, for the work is done by a master. Theaters in The Times as in no other paper have the truth told about them and the plays they offer. No business considerations ever interfere with the publication of criticisms that really criticise in this department, too, the work is done by a master. Society and the affairs of women find careful and complete exposition on the page devoted to them. Industrial matters are accorded the prominence they merit in a Pitts-burg paper, while the stock market is given the attention that has brought the Times into the front rank of financial authorities.
